Notes:

<sup>1</sup> SDG&E's prior reports did not include bill credits for January 2022 through June 2022 due to software reprogramming issues. Those issues were resolved in the July 2022 report and reflected in this report.

Notes:

Negative amount in May/November is due to the reclassification of expense to pre-paid in order to amortize the expense over the periods in which they are incurred.
